Oct – Nov - Dec 2023

Founded August of 1991 by CB Willis and Don Frederick and named by Jim Widener

32 Years of Hiking and Counting

All distances on the Appalachian Trail are taken from the A.T. Guide, 2023 Edition

Mon, Oct 2	Carvers Gap to Eagle Cliff (9+ miles, strenuous): We'll hike South on the AT, climbing Roan Mountain up to Toll House Gap. From there we leave the AT and take the Cloudland Trail to the Roan High Bluff access trail. At this point, we'll use a faint, deer track and make our way to a forest service road (130A) and head down to the Eagle Cliff access trail. Breathtaking views on the cliff will make this journey worth every step. Our return will be all on the forest service road until we connect with Toll House Gap paved road where we will walk back down to Carvers Gap. Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am. We'll make a second stop at Food City in Elizabethton. Be ready to depart Food City at 8:20 am, depart when the group from the church arrives. Leader: Pat Kenney, 276-791-8063 or patkenney28@hotmail.com.
Wed, Oct 4	Mount Mitchell State Park (5+ miles, moderate/strenuous): After parking in the park's bottom parking lot, we will hike the Old Mitchell Trail and the Nature Trail to the summit of Mount Mitchell, the highest point east of the Mississippi. Since this is just off the Blue Ridge Parkway, we will have great views and, hopefully, some wonderful Fall colors. The hike is about 5 miles up/down, but it's a workout! It's a moderate to strenuous climb, fairly steep in places, and with some technical areas with lots of rocks. If you want additional mileage, several of us plan on hiking the Deep Gap Trail (aka Black Mountain Crest Trail) in/out to Mt Craig, adding 2+ more strenuous miles. Mt Craig is the second-highest peak east of the Mississippi, only 37 feet lower than Mitchell. Mount Mitchell State Park is about a 2-hour drive from Johnson City. Form up and leave the Church at 7:00 am. We'll make a second stop at the Pinnacle Tower Trailhead at 7:15 am where the hike leader will be with the signup sheet. Leader: Lisa Millburn, 435-840-2685, lisa_millburn@hotmail.com.
Mon, Oct 9 Columbus Day Holiday	Beech Mountain Trail System (5 to 6 miles, easy to moderate): A crazy loop thru Beech Mountain ski resort and its Emerald Outback. With weather permitting, we will have scenic overlooks, Beech forests and beautiful rock formations. Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am. We'll make a second stop at Food City in Elizabethton. Be ready to depart Food City at 8:20 am, depart when the group from the church arrives. Leader: Rich Ritter 765-414-4253, richieritch1.0@gmail.com.
Wed, Oct 11	Grayson Highlands State Park (5+ miles, easy): After parking at Massie Gap and walking down the road, we'll hike the Stampers Branch Trail for 1.3 miles to the Wilson Creek Trail. This trail follows a beautiful boulder-filled stream. We'll then hike 1.2 miles on the AT and have lunch at Wise Shelter. Afterwards, we'll hike the AT 2.5 miles back to Massie Gap. If desired, we can hike some more on the AT for additional mileage. Much of this hike is new to us. Entry fee is $7/car. Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am. Meet the hike leader at the I-81 Exit 14 Park & Ride at approx. 8:40 am. Leader: Marcia Pruner, 276-614-5504.

Mon, Oct 16	Special Event: Bays Mountain Barge Ride and Hike (5+ miles, moderate): We start the day with a 9:00 am barge ride (free) around the reservoir arranged by Bob Fuller. (Bays Mountain Park does not permit dogs or other pets on the barge ride.) Afterwards, we'll head back to the nature center parking lot to freshen up and gather together our hiking gear. We'll then hike on several trails up to the Fire Tower for lunch. There is a $7 entry fee per vehicle; with a valid military ID, you are allowed free entry. Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am and/or meet in the Bays Mountain parking lot near the Nature Center at 8:40 am where the sign-in sheet will be. The gate at Bays Mountain does not open until 8:30 am, so if you get there early, you may have to wait. Leader: Bob Fuller, 423-773-3051; refuller99@hotmail.com.
Wed, Oct 18	Hawksbill, Table Rock and the Chimneys (about 5 miles total, moderate): This is a hike that is not about mileage, but the breathtaking views into Linville Gorge. We'll begin by hiking up/down Hawksbill Mountain (2.1 miles), then driving to the Table Rock parking lot. We'll hike up/down to Table Rock (1.4 miles). For those that want more distance, we'll hike in/out (about 1.7 miles) on the Mountains to Sea Trail (MST) to the Chimneys with its superb views. Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am. We'll make a second stop at Food City in Elizabethton. Be ready to depart Food City at 8:20 am, depart when the group from the church arrives. Leader: John Treece, 919-961-1560, john.treece@gmail.com.
Mon, Oct 23	Rattlesnake Ridge Trail to Pleasant Garden and return (9 to 10 miles, strenuous): Starting in Rock Creek Park National Recreation Area near Erwin, we will hike the Rattlesnake Ridge Trail to Pleasant Garden and return. This is a strenuous 9 to 10 mile hike through the changing colors of autumn up to a spectacular view (if the weather cooperates). 2,582 ft elevation gain. Since this is an in/out hike, you can make this a shorter hike if you wish. There is a $2 day-use fee per car at the entry. (Only $1 if you have a National Parks Senior Card.) Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am. Leader: Jeannine Edwards, 901-351-1779, jeannine21@bellsouth.net.
Wed, Oct 25	Carvers Gap to Grassy Ridge and return (6 to 7 miles, moderate): We will follow the AT past Round Bald and Jane Bald, then take a side trail to Grassy Ridge. This mountain has incredible views any time of the year and should be especially nice with Autumn colors. Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am. We'll make a second stop at Food City in Elizabethton. Be ready to depart Food City at 8:20 am, depart when the group from the church arrives. Leader Jeannine Edwards, 901-351-1779; jeannine21@bellsouth.net.
Mon, Oct 30	Devil's Fork Gap to Flint Mountain Shelter and back (5.4 miles, moderate) or Shelton Grave Site and back (11.2 miles, strenuous): A moderate in-out hike, about 5.4 miles roundtrip if you turn around at the Shelter, and about 11.2 miles if you hike on to Shelton Graves and return. This section of the AT is tree-filled and boasts outstanding colors in Autumn. Some late-blooming flowers, including closed gentian, have also been found along this path. Form up and leave the church at 8:00 am. Leader: Jeannine Edwards, 901-351-1779, jeannine21@bellsouth.net.

Mon, Nov 13	Looking Glass Rock (6.5 miles, moderate): The Looking Glass Rock Trail climbs about 1,700 ft. in just over three miles (6.5 miles round-trip). The many switchbacks along the way help make for a long and moderately difficult climb. The trail starts off following a stream with some small cascades along the way, before beginning a series of switchbacks up the mountain. Sections of the trail take you through tunnels of rhododendron and mountain laurel. After about two

	miles, the trail reaches a flat rock area, which is used as a helicopter pad by the local rescue squad for injured rock climbers. A spur trail heads off to the left past the helipad, which leads to some nice views from Lower Looking Glass Cliffs. The Trail continues past the summit and after a short distance you will arrive at Upper Looking Glass Cliffs, where you will be treated to some spectacular views. I'd suggest bringing some dry shoes and socks for the ride home in case the water is up. Form up and leave Krogers at 8:00 am. We'll make a second stop at the caboose in Damascus for a bathroom break and to pick up stragglers. Let me know ahead of time if you plan to meet us at the caboose. Mon, Dec 11	Elk Garden to Buzzard Rock (6.6 miles, moderate): This hike has been cursed by rain the last three times I've attempted it. Surely, I've moved out from under a bad sign and we can now make another attempt. We'll hike South on the AT from Elk Garden and climb White Top Mountain (the second highest peak in Virginia). Although we won't go all the way to the summit, on a clear day the views from Buzzard Rock are spectacular. Form up and leave Krogers at 8:00 am. We can make a stop at the Exit 14 Park & Ride on I-81 at 8:40 am for stragglers. Just let me know if you will use that option. Leader: Pat Kenney, (276) 791-8063 or patkenney28@hotmail.com.
